Yes, it is worth the trip for the most comprehensive church organist/keyboard seminar you have ever attended!! Designed for all levels of capability, you will meet and learn from one of the country's foremost church musicians with over 40 years of experience.

Rudy Lucente is Music and Liturgy Consultant at St. Rose Catholic Church in North Wales, PA. As well, he is the Assistant Organist of the Grand Court Organ at Macy's (formerly Wanamaker's) in Philadelphia, where he commands one of the largest playing pipe organs in the world with its roots here in St. Louis from the 1904 World's Fair organ installed in Forest Park. As well, he is the holiday staff organist at Longwood Gardens in Kennett Square. A much sought after recitalist, he is a special favorite of Mother Angelica at Holy Angels Monastery in Huntsville, AL. where he assists in liturgies several times a year.

As a well-known Catholic musician, Rudy has presented this seminar recently, to RAVE reviews, to musicians in the Dioceses of Houston, Texas and Wichita, KS. as well as countless other churches coast to coast. All musicians are welcome, as this seminar is not focused only on one denomination. Topics will also include working with ensembles, MIDI, "contemporary" services, and so much more than only "basics".

The seminar will be very interactive with everyone having an opportunity to pose their questions, concerns, and needs. Rudy promises that everyone attending "will be able to do something different, better, and more useful to their music ministry than they did before attending!" Rudy will be available following the seminar for individual help.

The Seminar is FREE of charge! A light lunch will be provided by Jerry Roberts, owner of Midwest Music Conservatory. Their facility is something to behold!
